

Dr. Acheson Writes 'Year's Best Mystery'

New Yorker, Other Publications Praise 'Murder To Hounds'

• DR. EDWARD ACHESON, of the economics department, who has countless writing honors to his credit, recently completed the best mystery novel of the year, according to The New Yorker magazine, and scores of publications which back up that magazine's opinion.

Dr. Acheson, who is well-known in the United States, England, France, and other countries for his book, "The Grammarian's Funeral," has written articles for Esquire, Coronet, and is a former London correspondent of the Washington Post.

His latest book, "Murder to the Hounds," is a story of an English Army officer who uses his knowledge of hunting field, and human nature to bring a confession from the slayer of a Virginia politician, to save the neck of his suspect sweetheart.

It is said that Dr. Acheson and G. D. H. Cole are the only two economists who write mystery stories.

Newspaper Comment

Newspapers throughout the nation have commented favorably on the book. Here is what a few of them say:

"Best novel of the year," The New Yorker.

"All the mystery one could desire," New York Times.

"The story contains good characterization, is skillfully constructed and the style, aside from serving as a fit vehicle for the yarn, is distinguished enough to be read for its own sake," The Durham (N. C.) Herald.

"Mr. Acheson's plot is well-enough and his dialogue is extraordinary," The Rook (Va.) Times.

"Unusually well-plotted and written with diverting dialogue," The Knoxville (Tenn.) News-Sentinel.

"A really entertaining mystery-story," The San Diego (Calif.) Sun.

"A good job on detective fantasy," The Boston (Mass.) Advertiser.

"Witty and vivacious," The Topeka (Kans.) Capital.

"An unusually attractive mystery," The Columbia (S. C.) Record.

"Good hunting!" The Saturday Review of Literature.

The book, sells for $2 and was published in America by the Harcourt, Brace Company. It will soon be published in England by Harrap.

Long-Awaited Alumni Directory Is Published

• THE LONG-AWAITED general Alumni directory made its appearance last week as the latest University publication. The first issued since 1917, its directory lists the names of 17,252 graduates upon whom the University, from 1824 to 1837, had conferred 20,665 degrees.

A complete historical directory of all alumni, living and dead, the publication lists the graduates in three separate indexes. As well as an alphabetical listing, there also appears a listing by class and a listing by home states and counties.

Lester Allan Smith, Alumni Secretary, revealed that it will be the aim of the University to publish additional supplements to the directory to keep it up to date. These supplements will probably be printed every few years when a sufficiently large number of names of alumni have been accumulated.

Alpha Kappa Psi Celebrates 34th Birthday

• ALPHA KAPPA PSI, professional commerce fraternity, celebrated its 34th anniversary last week with a buffet supper at the home of Dr. Richard M. Owens, charter member and deputy councillor of the fraternity.

Dr. Owens spoke on "The History of Alpha Kappa Psi" during the meeting. In addition, Demit ritual was held for graduating members Ira Devonald, William Knott, Robert Willey, Howard Bissell, and Paul Myer.

T. K. E., Delta Zeta Win Intramural Debate Contests

• TAU KAPPA EPSILON and Delta Zeta were the respective victors in the intramural debates sponsored by Delta Sigma Rho fraternity.

The final round of debates brought T. K. E., represented by Neal Tomey and John Rothrock, against a Sigma Nu team, composed of Patrick Henry and Dean Zinn. In the women's division, Louise May and Phyllis Barnes, representing Delta Zeta, met Anne Thurman and Virginia Lathrop, who debated for Pi Beta Phi.

The question for debate in each division was "Resolved, that the Patman anti-chain store act should be enacted into law."

Cups will be presented to each of the division winners Class Night, June 12.

Journalism Class Gets Its Taste Of Reporting

• USING THE HATCHET office as their "testing grounds," students of Mr. Nathan Robertson's advanced reporting class had their first taste of "real" news reporting last week.

The class met as usual in Building C, but the students were surprised when the instructor informed them that they were to go to The Hatchet office for experience in telephoning a news story.

Making as his headquarters the editor's office, Mr. Robertson called the students one at a time, and gave each pertinent information regarding the Senate's defeat of an additional appropriation to continue the work of the Florida Ship Canal.

With little more than 6 seconds to leave the editor's office, walk through the news and sport rooms and open the door to the little room containing the other end of the intercommunication telephone, students were expected to "call in" a story, in a manner similar to regular newspaper or news service reporters.

The make-shift classroom resembled a picnic ground at the beginning of the test; but by the time the first student marched from the editor's office, members of the class settled down to paper-fipping and nibbling.

"By gosh," remarked one hopeful but nervous reporter, "if we had an orchestra here, I bet my knees would jitter to the music."

Students are anxiously awaiting results of the "test" which will be given at the next session of class.

Prof. Henning Retires, Completing 41 Years Here

By Jimmy Edmunds

• DESPITE THE FACT that 68-year-old Prof. George N. Henning, of romance languages, and senior member of the faculty at the University, will be awarded the title of Professor Emeritus next month, thereby completing 41 years of teaching at the University; he is still just as alive and witty as most University students.

Prof. Henning's secret of keeping young lies in his association with young people. Going out of his way to take an interest in the deserving student has earned him countless friends at the University who will miss his presence on the campus next year.

His plans for the future are vague at present. However, he expects to "continue scholarly research" and may write a few more books.

Fought for Phi Beta Kappa

It will be remembered that Prof. Henning was largely responsible for the installation of the chapter of Phi Beta Kappa at the University last year, the only chapter in Wash-

Registration For Summer Opens

• SUMMER SESSIONS this year will present 107 courses in 20 of the departments of instruction, given by 61 members of the resident faculty and visiting specialists from the Federal Government and from national economic and educational organizations.

Courses dealing with current educational problems and with recent trends and developments in the field are included in the special schedule arranged by the school of education for teachers and school administrators.

Continuing the program begun last year, double-semester courses are offered in a number of subjects. These courses enable the student to complete a whole year of work in the summer.

Nine weeks' courses will run from June 19 to August 18; six weeks' courses, from June 26 to August 4. The Law School Summer Sessions is divided into two terms, the first running from June 19 to July 31 and the second from August 1 to September 14.

Preregistration for the Summer Sessions opened yesterday, continuing through May 29. During this period students now enrolled in the University may arrange their summer schedules. The regular registration days are Monday, June 19, for all courses in the Summer sessions, and Monday, June 26, for the six weeks' courses.

Art Class Is Scheduled For June 21

• PHILIP F. BELL, associate in art at the University, will conduct an outdoor class in landscape painting and drawing this summer in the environs of Washington, beginning June 21, and lasting through August 2.

Mr. Bell, who holds degrees both from this University and Yale, is at present director of the Children's Federal Art Gallery, as well as teacher of illustration and design in the Art Department.

He has become prominent in recent years for his mural work. He designed the murals for the McKinley High School Library, assisted Ezra Winter when he was painting the Rockefeller Center Music Hall mural, and worked with Harold Weston in the Adirondacks on his murals for the Procurement Division Building of the Treasury.

Class Clubs Elect Percy Frosh Director

• WITH TWO of the three class clubs represented, the convention to elect a Freshman Director for 1939-40, unanimously named Morgan Percy to that post on the Student Council.

George Pugh, advocate of the council, was chairman of the convention. The three delegates from each of the Freshman and Junior Clubs were present. The Sophomore Club delegates, although elected by that group, did not appear.

Percy's principal duties will be to conduct a freshman week program, and to orientate entering students.

Those who did not subscribe for one at the beginning of the semester, may purchase from a limited supply which is available at the same office.

First Students Had Oral Exams On Classics

• EXAMINATIONS aren't what they used to be. At least one hopes that graduates will not be called upon to "produce an original Latin ode," as the students in the Sophomore Class had to do in the first examination given by this University on July 9, 1922.

The students were examined orally before the Faculty and the Board of Trustees, according to the "Columbian Star," a newspaper of the time. The Preparatory Class were examined in Cicero's Orations and the New Testament, a knowledge of which was necessary to admission to the college proper.

The Freshman Class displayed their knowledge of English, grammar, arithmetic, logarithms, Roman antiquities and "Graeca Majora," according to the contemporary paper. The sophomore class were examined in Horace, algebra, Graeca Majora, Euclid's elements, and Blair's rhetoric. These advanced students showed their brilliancy by entertaining the faculty and trustees with original Latin odes.

The "assiduity of the pupils" is likewise commended in the same article on the University's first examinations which appeared in the Columbian Star July 20, 1922. There were no junior or senior classes at that time and the first commencement was not held until the end of 1924.

Prof. Bement Will Lead Story Group At U. Of C.

• PROF. DOUGLAS BEMENT, of the English department, will again join the staff of the Writer's Conference in the Rocky Mountains, sponsored by the University of Colorado, when he travels out to Boulder, Colorado, late in July, and assumes the leadership of the short story workshop.

Prof. Bement is completing his 13th year at the University, during which time he has written two successful textbooks, "Weaving the Short Story" and "Modern English Writing," has held an important staff position on the Golden Book Magazine, and become a recognized expert in the field of dramatic writing for the radio.

In recent years his students have won many cash prizes and honorable mentions in several short story contests.

The Writer's Conference, which has been a material source for many publishers, will be held from July 24 to August 11. It is divided into six separate groups in short story, novel, prose, radio and playwriting. Besides Prof. Bement, the staff will include: Post Edward Davison, Novelist Eric Knight, Prose Writer Burgess Johnson, Radio Director and Producer Norman Corwin, and Playwright Albert Maltz.

Special advisers will be such notable writers as Louis Bromfield, Pulitzer Prize winner, 1928; Robert Moss Lovett, former editor of The Dial; and Carl Van Doren, author of "Benjamin Franklin."

Lost Articles Must Be Claimed Before June 10

• UNCLAIMED ARTICLES will be disposed of during the summer. Miss Agnes Jasper, of the Lost and Found Department, announced late last week.

Students wanting to claim articles may do so anytime before the end of the semester. The Lost and Found Department, located in the building next to the Faculty Club, now has on hand many unclaimed textbooks, articles of clothing, and school supplies.

New Budget Of $17,615 Is Approved

• A STUDENT ACTIVITIES budget, totaling $17,615 for 1939-1940, was approved last week by the Student Council, and forwarded to University administration for final approval.

The budget, in its present form, makes one significant departure from last year's, in that three items which have been carried formerly will not be included.

Activity	'38-'39	'39-'40
The Hatchet	$11,700(1)	$10,000
Cherry Tree	4,500	4,300(3)
Varsity Debate	500(2)	500
Band	325(3)	465
Cue & Curtain	150	400
Glee Clubs	250	275
Student Council	200	225
Orchestra	100	100
	$17,600	$17,615

(1) Actual income—$8,864; Actual expenses—$10,700 (approximate).

(2) Plus $250 for High School Debate (not appropriated '38-'40).

(3) Plus $100 for director's salary (not appropriated '38-'40).

(4) Plus $1,800 for director's and accompanist's salaries (not appropriated '38-'40).

(5) If expenses are met for '38-'39 on enlarged yearbook, appropriation will be $1,500, otherwise $5,500.

The salary items for Band director and Glee Club director and accompanist, totaling $2,800, were referred back to the administration, since the salary contracts are made by the administration, not by the student body.

The Council also referred to the University administration of high school debate request for $350, because, said the Council resolution, "it is not truly a student activity."

The Council will make a request, separate from the budget, for a contingent appropriation of $150 to the Literary Club, in the form of an income loan, on the condition that the club presents a plan for publication of a literary magazine, which plan is accepted by the proper University authorities (the Advisory Committee on Publications).

Hatchet Budget Cut

Increases were made in a majority of the items. The Hatchet budget was cut $800. The Hatchet this year spent $1,000 less than the budget appropriation of $11,700. A deficit of $878 resulted, however, because the advertising income was almost $2,000 less than anticipated.

For next year, the anticipated advertising income will be based on this year's figure of approximately $5,900. A additional $1,000 will be requested from the University, on a contingent basis, beyond the $4,000 which was granted this year from the University fee.

A request from the Rousers Club for $45 was referred back to the club with the suggestion that the request go to the Athletic Department, where the appropriations have been made in the past for the organization.

A luncheon will be served, at 7:30 p.m. All members of the society, both Faculty and student, have been invited. After the luncheon, the initiation, and the traditional annual address, a business meeting will be held to elect new officers.

Commencement Ends Graduation Exercises

Faculty O.K.s Traffic Lights For School

By Abe Simon

• OVERWHELMING sentiment for the installation of traffic lights at University intersections developed from a survey of faculty opinion on traffic conditions here. The survey was conducted by The Hatchet last week.

Every professor interviewed, except one, was in favor of traffic control by lights. Dr. Carl Douglas Wells, of the sociology department, cast the lone vote against traffic lights because "we have so many lights." He added, however, that "I think that part-time operation of lights would be better than full time."

Dr. Stuart Henderson Britt, of the psychology department, strongly urged traffic lights. He also suggested an intensive campaign to educate the students to realize the value of such traffic control.

"Lights Would Help"

Dr. Howard Maxwell Merriman, of the History Department, thought traffic lights "would help, particularly around five or six p.m."

Dr. Lowell Joseph Ragatz, also of the history department, has urged the installation of lights for years. He told The Hatchet, "From the point of vantage of his office on the fourth floor of the Hall of Government, he revealed, he has heard many automobile accidents during the past school year. 'It is a miracle that we haven't had many students injured,' he said.

Dr. Raymond John Seeger, of the physics department, stressed that traffic lights would be valuable because they would give students crossing the street the right of way. He pointed out that under present conditions such students never have the right of way. He suggested as an additional aid that parking should be completely prohibited in some of the crowded University streets.

Mrs. Marcel LeMenager Lane, head of the University Press Bureau, thought the present situation was dangerous and suggested the possibility of closing 21st St. to all traffic.

Dean Henry Gratian Doyle, of Columbian College, also was in favor of traffic lights. "I'm heartily in favor of the idea," he told The Hatchet.

Congress Passes Bill Creating Planning Unit

• THE STUDENT CONGRESS ended its activities for the year last Wednesday by passing a bill creating a National Economic Planning Commission and a resolution of thanks to President Everett Bellows for his part in making the year a "successful" one.

"Provisions in the Social Welfare Bill, introduced by Joe Clorerty, for excluding married women from Government service and for admitting 20,000 refugee children from Germany annually, for paying a bonus of $100 for each child born in the United States, and for a prohibitive tax on chain stores were all rejected. A provision for a socialized medicine plan passed by a vote of 4-3. A National Economic Planning Commission was created to apportion production quotas and purchase surplus goods.

In reply to the resolution of thanks, President Bellows attributed the smooth flow of business which has characterized the last few sessions of the Congress, to the foresight of the Rules Committee.

Alumni Hold Annual Dance At Mayflower

• COMMENCEMENT in Constitutional Hall Wednesday evening, June 14, will climax five days of traditional exercises and receptions for this semester's 500 graduates.

A full pre-graduation program was announced by the University yesterday.

The annual reception and ball in honor of the graduates, given by the General Alumni Association, will take place at the Mayflower Hotel, Saturday, June 10.

Seniors will hear the Baccalaureate Sermon by the Right Rev. James E. Freeman, Bishop of Washington, Sunday, June 11. The President of the University will read the lesson. Music will be furnished by the Glee Clubs under the direction of Dr. Robert Howe Harmon, and by Robert G. Barrow, organist of the Cathedral.

The academic procession will enter the hall promptly at 7:45 p.m. Graduates will enter the South Crypt through the Curator's office, where caps and gowns will be available after 6:30 p.m. Caps and gowns received on Sunday should be retained until after Commencement Wednesday. Graduates will form in procession in the South Crypt, and assemble and form in procession in Bethlehem Chapel.

Reception by the President will be held at the Washington Club, 1701 K St. President and Mrs. Marvin will receive members of the graduating class and their parents from 5 until 7 p.m. There will be dancing.

Rain Halts Buff-Hoyas; End Season

By Tom McCall

AN EARLY afternoon downpour yesterday washed out the Colonial Freshman baseball team's last chance to even up the unmerciful 19-8 trouncing received at the hands of the Georgetown freshman nine two weeks ago.

This was the last scheduled game for both teams, and as the Hoyas are beginning their final examination period, the game will not be played in the near future, and ends the season for both baseball squads.

The Buff players held a meeting after the cancellation yesterday afternoon and elected Bobby Gilham and Tommy Simpson co-captains for next year's varsity nine. Gilham and Simpson formed a beautiful defensive combination at shortstop and second base, respectively.

Coach Ed Morris, and his assistant, Vinnie DeAngelis, star pitcher of the last varsity nine two years ago, ended a pretty good season with a record of eight wins and seven defeats. The only dismal note about the schedule was that they finished with three straight defeats at the hands of Roosevelt High, Central High, and the F.B.I. team.

Tau Sigs Win 6-3; Play Phi Sigs for Title

TAU SIGMA RHO upset Kappa Alpha, defending champions, 6-3, in an interfraternity league B game Saturday afternoon on an Ellipse diamond, and won the right to face Phi Sigma Kappa, League A winners, for the Greek baseball championship. The game will be played on the Ellipse Sunday morning, at 11:00.

The probable batteries will be Vic Sampson and Tim Swett for the Tau Sigs and Bob Faris and Jimmy Edmunds for the Phi Sigs. Tau Sigma Rho won four games and tied one, while Phi Sigma Kappa won all five of their contests. Tau Sigs score 6 in fifth.

Opposing hurlers in the K. A. T. S. R. game were Bill Strickler and Vic Sampson, both giving up only seven hits for the seven-inning game, but a five-run spurge in the fourth inning put the game on ice for the Tau Sigs. Sampson kept most of the K. A. hits well scattered, Kappa Alpha scoring one at a time in the first, fifth and sixth innings.

Most of the Tau Sigs runs in their fifth frame were due to K. A. errors and Bill Wright's Tau Sig second baseman, timely hit. Sampson pitched himself out of two bad spots in the fifth and sixth innings by striking out Billy Richardson and Dolph Hays, and allowed one run in both innings.

Score by innings:

Tau Sigs.....0 0 0 5 0 1-6 7 4

Kappa Alpha.....1 0 0 1 1 0-3 7 4

Linksmen End Season; Defeat Terrors, 4 1/2-1 1/2

THE COLONIAL golfers closed a hectic season on a happy note by decisively whipping Western Maryland, 4 1/2-1 1/2 last Thursday at the Washington Golf and Country Club. By this victory the Colonials played off a deadlock which had existed as a result of a 3-3 tie with the Terrors earlier this season.

The linksmen's complete season record shows victories over Johns Hopkins and Western Maryland, ties with Western Maryland and Maryland and defeats at the hands of Baltimore University and Maryland. They also finished fifth in the Western Maryland Invitational Tournament, in which they were defending champions.

Summary of the Western Maryland match is as follows:

Birmingham (G.W.) defeated O'Leary 5 and 4. Priddy (G.W.) defeated Burtis 5 and 4. Best ball, G.W. 5 and 4.

Priddy (W. Md.) defeated Madden 2 and 1. Goslin (G.W.) defeated Eck-enrode 6 and 5. Best ball—all even.

Catholics Will Attend Military Field Mass; Fr. Ellis Speaks At Communion Breakfast

THE NEWMAN CLUB, Catholic religious organization, will participate in the first annual Military Memorial Field Mass, which will be held in the Arlington National Cemetery Amphitheater Sunday morning, May 28, at 10:30 o'clock. The officers of the club will also be permitted to assist at the ceremonies at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier, and two members will place a wreath on the tomb. The mass is being sponsored by the Knights of Columbus.

The members of the club attended mass and received Holy Communion in a body at the 9 o'clock mass at Immaculate Conception Church last Sunday morning. Dr. John Tracy Ellis, professor of history at Catholic University, spoke on the subject of the position of Pope Pius XII regarding peace and the struggle between the democracies and the dictatorships, at the communion breakfast which was later held at Wesley Hall at 10:30 a.m.

"It is dangerous for the Pope to take sides in a political struggle between the two factions," Father Ellis said. "He has no choice of deciding what is best for the world, democracies or dictatorships. But as supreme shepherd of the Catholic Church, he has led in two ways: 1. By calling on the Catholics and all good Christians to pray for peace during the month of May; and 2. He has used the process of the diplomatic channels to insure that peace be held until the least possible chance for peace be exhausted," he said.

Colonial Nine Defeats Terps; Loses Three

FOUR GAMES in five days during the past week netted the Colonial Freshman baseball team only one victory, but the victory was a sweet one, as it avenged a previous defeat by the Maryland Freshman. In the game, played Tuesday afternoon, the Colonials rode rough-shod over the Terps to gain a 13-3 victory.

Frank McGinnis held the Terps to six scattered hits as his mates walloped the offerings of Vannals and Woodward for thirteen safeties. The high spot of the batting attack was a mighty homer by Bobby Gilham with the bases loaded in the fifth inning.

On Wednesday the Buffmen were handed the first of three straight defeats, bowing to Roosevelt High, 7-5. Jack Redinger, an ex-Roosevelt student, was treated unkindly by his former teammates as they ganged up on him in the first two innings to score all of their seven runs.

Central was the conquer of the Morrismen on Thursday, 7-1, as Fisher, Central's hurler, limited the Buffmen to five scattered hits, one of which was another homer off the bat of Bobby Gilham in the last of the ninth. Nichols and McGinnis did the hurrying for the Colonials and surrendered twelve hits between them.

The Bureau of Investigation waited until the ninth inning to spoil Ed Morris' Saturday afternoon, scoring four runs in that inning to win the game 9-6. Lefty Kushman and Jack Redinger gave the G-Men 14 hits and nine walks while their teammates contributed five errors to help the enemy's cause. The Fresh batmen could collect only seven hits, but used them to good advantage in the early innings. In the last four innings, however, they could only garner one safe blow.

Tau Sigs Win Golf Tourney; P.S.K. Second

TAU SIGMA RHO won the interfraternity golf tournament at Sherwood Forest Sunday afternoon by shooting a low total of 362. Phi Sigma Kappa was runner-up with 368; Sigma Nu placed third with 379; and Kappa Alpha, defending champions, did not post their scores and ended in 8th place. Late Franklin, of Sigma Alpha Epsilon, was medalist with low score of 43-42-35, and will receive a cup from the Interfraternity Council.

Other totals were: S. A. E., 405; Sigma Chi, 414; Kappa Sigma, 479; Sigma Phi Epsilon, 486; and Acacia. (no score posted). Dunbar Chambliss, Sigma Nu golfer, was second high medalist with 42-44-36, and Carl Betsch, Phi Sig linksmen, third with 44-44-38.

The individual totals for the Tau Sigs and Phi Sigs are as follows:

T.S.R. (Dick Jennings, 42, 47-39; Finley Goslin, 43, 47-39; Jack Chipper, 48, 43-38; Vic Sampson, 48, 44-32.)

Women Riflers Third In N.R.A.

ONLY A single point kept the women's rifle team from winning the annual Intercollegiate Team Championship tournament sponsored by the National Rifle Association. Finishing third with a score of 2,463, the Colonial women sharpshooters finished behind the University of Washington, with 2,464, and Beaver College, with the same score as the Colonials. The tie between the Colonials and Beaver was broken by the highest individual aggregate score, 5 highest scores out of 10 counted.

Jean Yocum, who also brought distinction to the team by winning the individual intercollegiate championship, led the team with a 496.

The tournament closed the most successful season of the women marksmen in several years. The team lost only to Missouri and Oregon, the Missouri team shooting a perfect 500 in their match. The Colonials squared accounts with the Drexel girls in the NRA championship match, beating them by 10 points.

The team totals for the NRA match are as follows:

Jean Yocum, 99, 100, 100, 98, 99, 496

Doris Ludwig, 100, 100, 98, 97, 98, 493

THE SENIOR physical education majors were honored at a dinner party given by the Women's Physical Education Department Friday night at the Collingwood Inn.

Guest speaker for the banquet was Mrs. John Murdock, the wife of the Congressman from Arizona. Mrs. Murdock was elected the first president of the Seventy-fifth Congressional Club. A former State Archery Champion in Arizona and teacher of physical education, she is now a newspaper correspondent and a candidate for her Ph.D. degree.

During the evening gifts were presented to Miss Ruth H. Atwell, head of the Department, and to Miss Helen Lawrence in recognition of their tenth year of service in the Department. In turn the staff presented to each senior a link bracelet containing three charms—a compass, a ladder and scales. The significance of each was outlined by Miss Atwell.

3 Tournaments Highlight Close Of Spring Sports

A SWIMMING MEET, a golf tournament, and a tennis tournament held last week were highlights of the closing weeks of women's sports.

Pi Beta Phi and Chi Omega tied for first place in the Intra-mural event in the Swimming Meet held at the Shoreham Pool Wednesday at 8 p.m. Kappa Kappa Gamma placed second and Colonial Campus Club third. Bette Burch, Marjorie Burch, and Barbara Felker swam for Chi Omega, while Marianna Trowbridge, Norma Hatfield, and Rosemary Coleman swam for Pi Phi.

The Individual Meet, in which 17 women were entered, was won by June Booth Stan with an accumulation of 10 points. Mrs. Stan placed first in the diving and the racing back competitions. Jane Castelli placed second with 7 points.

Demonstrations of diving were given between the two meets by Miss Ann Aranson, District women's diving champion and a member of the Ambassador Pool swimming team, and Bill Tobbet District men's diving champion.

The judges of the meet were Miss Jean Pearson of Mount Vernon Seminary, Miss Clara Boyd Wheeler and Miss Muriel Gamert of the Y.W.C.A.

Virginia Moore and Virginia Stephens were winners of the annual women's doubles tournament, which was held the week-ends of May 7 and May 14 at the 16th Street Reservoir courts. They defeated Sue Preston and Barbara Hawley and Margo Sellers and A. Harris for the tennis championship.

Madeline Matchett, tennis manager, was in charge of the tournament.

Patricia Wehr and Marianna Trowbridge won first and second places, respectively, in the annual handicap golf tournament held at the National Women's Country Club Sunday, May 14.

Cups to tournament winners will be presented at the W. A. A. Spring Banquet, which will be held at the Collingwood Inn Wednesday at 8 p.m.

wood, president; Sally Steele, vice president; Virginia Birkby, secretary; and Virginia Tehas, treasurer; and Norma Hatfield, editor.

W.A.A. Spring Banquet Promises Novel Program

A NOVEL PROGRAM is in store for women students attending the Women's Athletic Association spring banquet, which will be held at the Collingwood Inn tomorrow at 8 p. m.

An Ideal Physical Education Department will be depicted in a skit which has been written by Kathryn Hershey, one of the two banquet chairmen. Complaints and "ideas" for improvement will be presented with an interspersement of songs.

Marion Brown, prominent District golfer, is the guest speaker for the evening. A dance number by Mary Henshall will round out this part of the program.

The more serious portion of the banquet will include the presentation of awards: The award for the W. A. A. will be presented at this outstanding senior woman, who is chosen on the basis of campus activities, scholarship, and service to time, as well as a plaque award to the outstanding junior or senior. Frances Frather and Hazel Smallwood were winners of the respective awards last year.

In addition to these awards, cups will be presented to the winners of the spring tournaments, which are undergoing completion. As an innovation in awards, points will be presented to a varsity canoeing crew. Major and minor letters for accumulation of 1,000 to 500 points, respectively, will also be given during the evening. Sweaters to those receiving major letters will be presented later.

Art Department Holds Dance
• SORORITY HALL, Recreation Room will again be the scene of a colorful dance, when the Art Department holds its second annual Smock Ball there next Friday evening.

'Round the town WITH Buff and Blue

GOSH! More pin news—but 'tis said Nancy Whittemore kept hers only 24 hours last week.

If you're wise as to the best spots in town you are familiar with the RAINBOW ROOM of the Hamilton Hotel, 14th & K. You've enjoyed the good dancing there as well as excellent cocktails. A very pleasant place indeed. It's now even better than last summer. Try it for your next date.

Pauline Mossman bids fair to title of "Sweetheart of Sigma Chi."

Naturally BLACKSTONE FLOWER SHOP, 1407 H St. N.W., knows just what in the way of flowers will please the girls at G. W. Remember, Graduates, you'll get better flowers here. Corages have a certain distinction when they're from BLACKSTONE'S, due to their more excellent quality for the most part. Call 101, 1300.

Cap and Jane's engagement now entering into its third week.

Good substantial home-like meals at the CANDLES COFFEE SHOP, 1710 Eye St., are mighty hard to beat. Students like this place because their food satisfies a good healthy collegiate appetite. Roast beef and mashed potatoes are better at the CANDLES, and you'll have to go some to find better pie than here.

Ward didn't mention seeing his old friend Elaine at the Derby, but one couldn't say he didn't try. Mayhap Lermer upset the applecart.

Drastic reductions have been made in cups and saucers by BALFOUR'S, 1319 F St. N.W., No. 1045. The great number of orders for the official G. W. class ring and other school and fraternity jewelry through Mr. Ford here testify that the excellence of their jewelry is still retained. Drop in and look around.

We understand Carter Miller broke several hearts when she accepted Dick Ferguson's K.A. pin the other Saturday. Explained she said, "It was just one of those things."

Prof. Henning

teaching was illustrated when a student recently asked him if he liked to teach. Prof. Henning instead of replying, asked the student his opinion on the question. The student replied "I think you love it."

In 1928 he helped celebrate the 150th anniversary of his alma mater, Phillips Academy, at Andover, Mass., an event which was attended by President Coolidge, presidents of the leading universities and colleges of the country, and other celebrities. He graduated from that school in 1890 as valedictorian, heading his class with a straight "A" average.

Due to his work in the French language, he was awarded the Legion of Honor by the Ambassador to the United States at the French Embassy in 1934. He is one of the trustees of the Institut Français de Washington, of which General Pershing is honorary president, and has been to France six times, including two stays of one year or more.

He has been president of the following: Faculty Club (at the University), the University chapter of the American Association of University Professors, the University chapter of Phi Beta Kappa, Federal Schoolmen's Club and the Harvard Club of Washington, is member of the Modern Language Association of America, Institut Français de Washington, Phi Beta Kappa, Cosmos Club, and has been a member of the University Club, the Cambridge Colonial Club of Cambridge and the City Club of Boston.

He has edited a number of books, most important of which is "Representative French Lyrics of the Nineteenth Century," 1913, and revised and enlarged in 1935. Others include "La Question d'Argent," by A. Dumas, 1898, "Polyeucte Martyr, Tragedie Chretienne by Rene Coeurneille," 1907, "Representative Stories of Anatole France," 1924, and "La Course du Flambeau," by Paul Hervieu, 1922.

Students Get Special Attention At New Store

• THE STUDENTS BOOK CO., INC. this week announced the opening of a new store at 2107 Pennsylvania Ave. to "give students at G. W. special attention when they come in to buy or sell their textbooks."

H. Warshaw said that the company has facilities for obtaining used copies of textbooks from other college bookstores throughout the country and for disposing of books which are no longer in use at the University, provided that they are current editions.

A full line of student supplies, including dictionaries, stationery, laboratory coats, review books, college jewelry and novelties, greeting cards and pennants and banners will be carried in stock.

New Officers Are Announced

• NEW OFFICERS of the Women's Intramural Board for 1939-40 were announced as Edith Renner, president; Ethel Hoffman, treasurer; Norma Hatfield, secretary, and Betty Burch, assistant secretary.

Delegates and alternates of the new board are Helen McNeil and Barbara Hodge, Delta Zeta; Virginia Stevens and Ann Barrett, Kappa Kappa Gamma; Day Bowen and Rose Emily Johnson, Phi Mu; Sally Anderson and Betty Caswell, Kappa Delta; Gertrude Edelson and Phyllis Blumenthal, Phi Sigma Sigma; Sue Burnett and Mary Armstrong, Sigma Kappa; Norma Hatfield, and Ann Joyce David, Pi Beta Phi; Betty Burch and Margery Burch, Chi Omega; Jane Coulter and Lorraine Williams, Zeta Tau Alpha; Edith Renner and Jacqueline Scott, Alpha Delta Theta; Ethel Hoffman and Lily Dhu Cobb, Colonial Campus Club and Lindsey Brown and Louise Alden, Alpha Delta Pi.

Dr. and Mrs. Yocum Announce Engagement

• THE ENGAGEMENT of Jean Yocum of Sigma Kappa to Jack R. Harlan was announced last week by her parents, Dr. and Mrs. L. Edwin Yocum.

Miss Yocum was recently tapped for Mortar Board in recognition of her services on the women's varsity rifle team, on the W. A. Board as hockey manager and in the Glee Club. In her freshman year she received the Beta Phi Alpha Zoology Award, and in her sophomore year received the Mortar Board Award for the outstanding sophomore woman. In addition she recently captured the National Collegiate Rifle championship.

Mr. Harlan is a graduate of the University, having been elected to Phi Beta Kappa here, and is a member of Sigma Xi. He captained the men's championship rifle team last year.

Alumnus Drafts Law

• ALBERT E. REITZEL, A.B., 1920, and assistant solicitor, Department of Labor, has recently returned from a stay of several months in the Dominican Republic in the West Indies. He was there as a member of a commission loaned to that country by President Roosevelt that drafted laws relating to immigration and the importation of alien laborers into that country. The drafts have recently been enacted into law by the Congress of the Dominican Republic.

Bob Garen Elected

• THE WESLEY CLUB recently elected officers for the coming year. They were Bob Garen, president; Mary Jo Oslin, vice president; Mary Ann Green, secretary; and Florence James, treasurer.

Final Examination Schedule

May 31—June 8, 1939

The class schedule is suspended during the examination period. Examinations will be two hours in length. Books and scratch papers may not be taken into the examination room unless authorized by the instructor in charge.

Third group courses are not included. Courses in Law, Medicine and Pharmacy will be arranged by each school involved. Conflicts which can not be adjusted with the instructor, and errors should be reported to the Registrar.
